GOLD

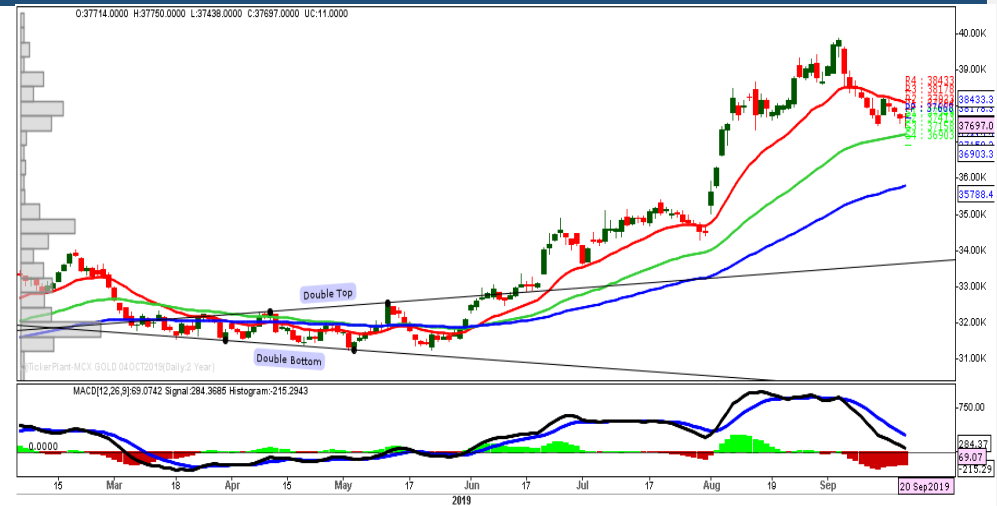

Gold trading range for the day is 37316-37940.

Gold recovered amid an escalation in geopolitical tensions and uncertainty about the U.S. and China agreeing on a trade deal anytime soon

U.S. and Chinese deputy trade negotiators resumed face-to-face talks for the first time in nearly two months.

The Fed cut interest rates for the second time this year to help sustain economic expansion but gave mixed signals on future rate cuts.

Investors also looked ahead to a potential cooling of U.S.-China trade tensions, as the two sides gear up for talks.

SILVER

Silver trading range for the day is 45898-46972.

Silver prices remained under pressure following the conclusion of the U.S. Federal Reserve's latest policy meeting.

The Fed cut rates for the second time this year, again by a quarter point. The federal funds rate is now 1.75% to 2%.

The central bank has two more policy meetings for the year, in October and December, but there is no certainty it will cut rates further.

A report from the National Association of Realtors said existing home sales in the U.S. surged up by 1.3% to an annual rate of 5.49 million in August
