

Nifty Outlook

In a highly volatile trading session, the Indian indices swung both ways before ending the session in green. The Nifty index managed to end with gains of 0.4% at 14,700 levels. The broader markets witnessed healthy buying interest as both the Midcap and Smallcap index ended higher by nearly 1%. Amongst the sectors, except Banking and Consumer Durables, all the other indices ended in green wherein Healthcare, Realty and Telecom were the top gainers.

In the near term, we expect the markets to remain volatile as investors try to gauge the impact of restrictions imposed by state government to curb the spread of the virus. Moreover, the upcoming RBI monetary policy and earnings announcement from companies would also keep the volatility high.
