

Nifty Outlook

Markets witnessed a healthy rebound and gained nearly a percent, taking a breather after the recent dip. The banking stocks led the charge, thanks to the dovish monetary policy wherein the RBI left rates unchanged and maintained its accommodative stance. Finally, the Nifty index ended higher by 0.9% at 14,819 levels. The broader markets too witnessed healthy buying interest wherein both Midcap and Smallcap ended higher by 0.8% and 1.3%. All the major sectors ended in the green wherein auto, banking and metal were the top gainers.

With RBI policy behind us, the investors' focus would shift back to fundamentals and global cues. The rising COVID-19 cases and earnings announcement from companies would dictate the trend ahead. A decisive break above 14,900 in Nifty may result in a sustainable surge else consolidation will continue. Meanwhile, prefer hedged positions and focus more on the selection of stocks.
