GOLD

Gold trading range for the day is 46617-47635.

Gold prices moved higher amid rising optimism about U.S. stimulus and on data showing a smaller-than-expected increase in non-farm payrolls last month.

Data released by the Labor Department showed a modest rebound in employment in the month of January.

Physical gold demand picked up in China ahead of the Lunar New Year festival, while Indian retail buyers cheered a sharp dip in domestic rates

The SPDR Gold Trust saw its highest inflows since Jan. 15, on Feb. 4.

SILVER

Silver trading range for the day is 66637-69873.

Silver prices rallied helped by data showing slower-than-expected growth in U.S. employment underpinning the need for additional financial support.

The U.S. House of Representatives will take up final approval of a budget measure that would let Democrats push the $1.9 trillion COVID-19 relief package through Congress.

U.S. employment growth rebounded moderately in January and job losses in the prior month were deeper than initially thought.

The United States' trade deficit surged to its highest level in 12 years in 2020 as the COVID-19 pandemic disrupted the flow of goods and services.
