GOLD

Gold trading range for the day is 48457-49633.

Gold prices reversed early losses to edge up after data showed U.S. consumer prices increased more than expected last month.

Investors also took stock of the European Central Bank policy decision to continue to run its emergency bond purchases at a higher pace than at the start of the year.

Data showed U.S. consumer prices increased further in May as the coronavirus pandemic's easing grip on the economy continued to boost domestic demand.

Weekly jobless claims also dropped to their lowest level in nearly 15 months.

SILVER

Silver trading range for the day is 70420-72960.

Silver gained as US annual inflation data showed consumer prices jump a higher-than-expected 5% in May.

The Labor Department said its consumer price index rose by 0.6 percent in May after climbing by 0.8 percent in April.

However, investors remained mostly confident that policymakers won't start tightening its monetary policy sooner than expected

Elsewhere, the European Central Bank pledged to keep running its emergency bond purchases at a "significantly higher pace" than early this year.
