GOLD

Gold trading range for the day is 46701-47759.

Gold prices gained after the ISM PMI survey showed the US manufacturing sector expanded at a softer pace in April.

Gold was already gaining on the back of lower US Treasury yields and mounting concerns over the coronavirus crisis.

China's Q1 gold consumption jumps 93.9% y/y on robust demand – association

India and China drove gold jewellery demand 52 per higher during the first quarter this year with the same period a year ago

SILVER

Silver trading range for the day is 67679-72755.

Silver rallied on some safe-haven bids stemming from rising coronavirus infections around the world and lower US Treasury yields.

Further expectations of increased industrial demand as the economic recovery gathers pace and a weaker dollar offered lasting support.

The ISM PMI survey showed the US manufacturing sector expanded at a softer pace in April, due to slower growth rates for both new orders and employment

Investors look forward to a raft of US economic data this week, including non-farm payrolls.
