GOLD

Gold trading range for the day is 46770-48056.

Gold gains as support seen amid a weaker dollar and easing Treasury yields propelling it over the key $1,800 psychological level.

Fewer Americans filed new claims for unemployment benefits last week as the labor market recovery gains steam amid an economic boom

Fed Chair Jerome Powell has argued the labour market is far short of where it needs to be to start talking of tapering asset purchases.

Fed's Rosengren says inflation will normalize close to 2%

SILVER

Silver trading range for the day is 68799-73385.

Silver gained as Treasury yields retreated while a weaker dollar lent further optimism to the bulls

Silver exchange traded funds could continue to outperform their gold counterparts as improving industrial demand helps support the rally.

Global industrial silver production is expected to grow 8% this year due to strong demand for consumer electronics and solar.

The price for silver is expected to peak at $32 per ounce later this year and its average price to increase 33% over 2020 - Silver Institute.
