GOLD

Gold trading range for the day is 46780-47894.

Gold prices fell as a rebound in U.S. bond yields and a surprise increase in September retail sales dented the metal's appeal as a safe-haven asset.

U.S. retail sales unexpectedly increased in September, boosting equities, and extending losses in risk-hedge gold.

The number of Americans filing new claims for unemployment benefits dropped below 300,000 last week for the first time in 19 months.

World Bank expects global growth of 5.7% in 2021, 4.4% in 2022

SILVER

Silver trading range for the day is 62354-63924.

Silver dropped weighed down by strong equities markets and higher bond yields.

Yields remain supported amid expectations that the Federal Reserve and other central banks are going to tighten their monetary policy.

The FOMC minutes signaled that the Federal Reserve will announce a plan to taper asset purchases in either mid-November or mid-December.

Data from the Commerce Department showed retail sales climbed by 0.7% in September after jumping by an upwardly revised 0.9% in August.
