CRUDEOIL

Crude oil trading range for the day is 6562-7230.

Crude oil dropped as investors weighed a weakening global economic outlook and potential subdued demand against tightening supplies.

However, ongoing supply disruptions from Russia and a conflict between Armenia and Azerbaijan, have been limiting further downside momentum.

U.S. crude stocks and distillate inventories rose while gasoline inventories fell, the Energy Information Administration said.

Crude inventories rose by 2.4 million barrels in the week to Sept. 9 to 429.6 million barrels, compared with expectations for an 833,000-barrel rise.

NATURAL GAS

Natural gas trading range for the day is 619.4-750.

Natural gas dropped on a possible deal that would avoid a rail strike

The drop in gas prices also came on expectations output would reach a monthly record in September

Demand would decline when the Cove Point liquefied natural gas (LNG) plant in Maryland shuts for a couple weeks of maintenance in October.

Data provider Refinitiv said average gas output in the U.S. Lower 48 states rose to 99.0 bcf so far in September from a record 98.0 bcf in August.
